For the Attention of Mr. Padhaye

Dear Sirs,

Current Account No.4/8710

Please refer to the talk the undersigned had with you as rego the facility of issuing Bankers' Cheques against presentation Bankers' Cheques in your favour. In this connection, a attention is invited to our letter dated 19th August, 1991. regards

As has been mentioned to you, we are prime brokers for security transactions of your bank and your subsidiary, SBI Capital Markets Ltd. In the course of dealing for such transactions in a day-to-day manner, we deal with your Securities Division frequently. Therefore, to facilitate a single point clearance, we have to request you to let the activities of issuance and acceptance of Bankers' Cheques be conducted by the Securities Division. This will facilitate us to meet the deadlines of interbank clearing timings. bank clearing timings.

You will appreciate that not only the charges therefor will be credited to the PBD, but the day-to-day float in the current account will also remain with you.

We hope you will have no hesitation in allowing us these facilities, as they do not in any way hamper the business interests of the Bank, in general and the PBD or the Securities Division in particular.

Thanking you and awaiting your early reply, May all of a day way They have and the TENS BUM Yours faithfully, For Harshad S Mehta Machina 2012 policio 1 12/1/45 The be laid addings (Panka) V. Shah) We see with & folish on inger mind.
